The affidavit declares that these things were taken from her baggage on board the steamship City of Mexico, under various pretenses.

Fear of a "Pool."

There is an early prospect of a pooling arrangement for greenbacks, and many old and prudently managed banks are restive under the arrangement, and desire liberty of managing their own greenbacks as well as National Bank notes, and to receive and pay out over their counters. Their receipts cannot be as free as before suspension so long as there is discount on bank checks on Wall street and they insist on the right of paying greenbacks across their own counters.

No day is named for a meeting of the clearing house banks to relax existing arrangements, but it is probable it will not be later than Saturday or Monday next.

Stokes' Trial.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Six jurors were obtained in the Stokes case up to the adjournment of the court.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Drawing on the Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Treasury reserves are now being drawn on daily to pay the actual expenses of the Government. There is no apprehension of the Department that the draft upon the $44,000,000 reserve will be very heavy in the ordinary course of business. The amount of outstanding legal tenders is now shown to be over $350,000,000, and will be reduced again to those figures at the earliest practicable moment. It may be before the issue of the next public statement. The Secretary emphatically asserts that outstanding legal tenders are not to exceed minimum figures, not a dollar more than the absolute demands of the Government require.

Interior California.

STOCKTON, Oct 10.—At a meeting of the San Joaquin and Tulare Narrow Gauge Railroad Company yesterday, Engineer Blair submitted full reports of the eastern line from Stockton to Visalia. The total length of the line from Stockton to Visalia is 175 miles. The greatest hight above tide is 460 feet, but the maximum grade in ascending south is only 52 8-100 feet per mile. Average grade per mile 20 87-100 feet. Total length of bridging of all kinds 20,570 feet. Total estimated cost of eastern line $1,97?,166. Total length of western line from Stockton to Visalia, 161 miles. Greatest hight above tide, 373 feet. Maximum grade ascending south, 47 52-100 feet. In descending south, 31 08-100 feet. Average grade per mile 11 4-100 feet. Total length of bridging of all kinds, 23,582 feet. Total estimated cost, $1,877,448. Excess of the average cost per mile of the western line over the eastern is in consequence of the greater amount of bridging required. The directors did not vote on the adoption of either line. A committee was appointed to draft a bill, to be submitted to the next Legislature, to authorize several counties to subscribe to the capital stock, but not in the form of donations. The amount of stock subscribed for to date is $188,000, and ten per cent has been paid. It is understood that the bill to be drafted authorizing counties to subscribe will except San Joaquin. The next regular meeting of the Board will be in November.

SANTA CRUZ, Oct 10.—A large attendance at the meetings yesterday. The relation of the Congregational Churches to the University at Berkeley was the leading question under consideration this forenoon. To buy land, erect a chapel and college home to cost in all about $75,000, was resolved upon. Proper committees were appointed to open books and secure funds. Mr Collin, Superintendent of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, has a gang of men at Soledad Pass. Work is progressing as rapidly as the very difficult nature of the cañon will permit. The reason given for commencing work so soon is that the cañon is of a character which cannot be pushed with celerity, therefore time is everything, in order to have it finished soon enough to make the connection.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Races and Base Ball.

SALEM, Oct 10.—The weather was very pleasant to-day and there was a perceptible increase in the crowd in attendance at the Fair grounds. Stock was examined to-day and premiums were awarded. For the trotting match best 3 in 5 free for all horses there were three entered: McClellan by B B Acker, Highlander by J J Welch, and Eph Maynard by C P Bacon. A match game of base ball for the premium of $100, offered by the Agricultural Society came off to-day between the College Nine of Salem and the Pioneers of Portland, the College winning by 30 runs. The score stood 52 to 22.

A large crowd is expected to-morrow.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

SEATTLE, Oct 10.—The U S Revenue cutter Lincoln sailed from Port Townsend for San Francisco to-day.

OREGON

The Statesman wants sidewalks constructed on the Fair grounds.

The storage capacity of the seven warehouses in Albany is 610,000 bushels, and they are nearly all full.

The Oregon City Seminary has 180 pupils in attendance. The Seminary is in good hands, and deserves to be patronized.

The County Court yesterday accepted the Clackamas bridge. It is one of the finest bridges in the State, and is a credit to the county.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to two candidates at the Congregational Church in Oregon City last Sunday morning by Rev Dr Atkinson.

Rev S G Irvine has resigned the pastorate of Willamette Church nine miles south of Albany, and will hereafter devote his ministerial labors to the U P Church in that city.

Artesian wells are no longer a doubt or an uncertainty in Oregon. Last winter one was drilled at Peterson's Butte, fourteen miles from Albany, and flowing water struck at the depth of 130 feet. This well was drilled upon a dry rocky point, such places being preferable.

Every available shelter in Dayton is piled full of sacked wheat awaiting shipment. The capacities of the warehouses have been so overtaxed that on Wednesday evening last one of them burst asunder and spewed more sacks of wheat than it was thought possible to store in its capacious precincts.

Brown, of the Albany Democrat, thought he almost had his teeth in some of Philip Ritz's choice Walla Walla peaches, but the frost came one day too soon and nipped Mr Brown's hopes and the peaches. Our experience in regard to a generous offer by Mr Ritz was exactly the same.

The Albany Collegiate Institute is at present in a more flourishing condition than at any former period of its existence. New scholars are daily coming in and a large 'invoice' is expected after the adjournment of the State Fair. President Warren is making the institution a success and our people cannot do better than to patronize him.

Mr Roland Flernoy, of Douglas county, gives the Mercury the particulars of a fearful tragedy which occurred near Drain's Station, in that county last Sunday evening. A man whose name we did not learn became intoxicated, laid down by the railroad track, went to sleep and—awoke in another world. When the train came down he was not discovered until within sixty feet and then no human power could save him. The cow catcher struck him on the head, literally crushing it to pieces. A Coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

The Mercury learns from parties attending the Fair that a man named Frank Hagins, of Looking Glass, Douglas county, was poisoned by eating salt salmon and afterwards taking a drink of whisky. He started home from a neighborhood store, and was observed by one of his neighbors who took him into a barn to sleep off what he supposed was only the effects of too much whisky. During the evening the gentleman took him something to eat, but finding him sleeping soundly concluded to let him alone till morning. Next morning, however, when he went out to wake him up he found him stark and stiff, having died during the night.

The Albany Democrat says: "A young lady of uncertain age, graceful in form, blue eyes and flaxen hair, dressmaker by occupation, and sojourning in one of the numerous villages of Linn county, on Monday last thought herself to fall in with the prevailing fashion of committing suicide. Accordingly, she bought a bottle of [illegible] and left a note on her dressing table informing her friends that she had committed suicide and did not wish to be found. A sensation in the village was the result of this, but her remains could nowhere be found. No intelligence of the lost one could be gained until a shower of rain that fortunately passed that way drove the young lady out from her hiding place to readjust her curls, waterfall, &c., before swallowing the fatal draught."

Last Monday morning, as Mr Samuel Farr [illegible] of Clear Creek was leaving Oregon City for his home he met with a very severe accident. He waited until the regular train had passed, and as he was crossing the road near Abernethy Creek, he came in contact with an extra train which frightened his horses, causing them to run away, throwing Mr [illegible] out and severely injuring him, and [illegible] to pieces. The track is hid from view by the slaughter house, and as the train did not whistle in crossing the road Mr [illegible] was not apprised of the approach until [illegible] upon the track [illegible] was being conveyed to town.

A CONTEMPORARY says: [illegible]

An amusing contrast [illegible] John Stuart Mill [illegible] worth £14,000 [illegible] merchant [illegible] worth £320,000. The philosopher was perhaps surprised at having so much to leave, the potato man probably regretted having so little.

OREGON STATE FAIR.

Thirteenth Annual Fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society.

Fifth Day.

STATE FAIR GROUNDS, SALEM, Oct 10, 1873.

The indications of the morning were favorable for a dry day. The sun came up bright and cheerful, giving confidence and comfort all day [illegible] visitors to the Fair grounds. In this expectation none were disappointed. Although the roads to and at the grounds were soft the atmosphere was all that could be desired to promote joy in the breasts of all—so much so, that the rains of the last two days and the discomforts resulting therefrom were forgotten as a dream of the night. By 10 o'clock the grounds were dry, and a large attendance of visitors were in the full tide of enjoyment. The young people that had come with such high expectations of having a grand time, but who have been hitherto so much disappointed in consequence of the heavy rains, have had a glorious day's entertainment in visiting the different places of amusement.

PRIZES AWARDED FOR SHEEP.

The exhibition of thoroughbred sheep at this State Fair immensely surpasses any former one. In the

AMERICAN MERINOS

G P Naylor, of Forest Grove, took the first prize for the best two-year old buck and John Minto took the second prize. Mr Minto got the blue ribbon for the best year old ewe and the red ribbon for the second best. He also got the first prize for the best ewe and lamb and Mr Naylor got the red ribbon for the second best. Mr Naylor was awarded the first prize for the three best lambs. All these are pure American Merinos. Among the splendid exhibits of

SPANISH MERINOS,

T J Davidson, of Salem, took the first prize for the best two year old buck and Rev J T Parrish of Salem got the second prize. Hewett A Munson, of California, got the blue ribbon for the best year old ewe and Rev J T Parrish the second prize. Mr Davidson got both the blue and yellow ribbon for best and second best ewe and lamb and the first and second prizes for the best and second best lot of three lambs.

THE FRENCH MERINOS

Among the list of competitors in this class of beautiful animals, Charles Miller, of Jefferson, took the first premium for the best buck of two years old and upwards and John Minto got the second prize. Howard Hunsaker of Marion county, took the blue ribbon and John Minto got the red ribbon. Mr Minto took both the first and second prize for the best and second best ewe and lamb. David Guthrie, of Dallas got the blue ribbon for the best three lambs and Howard Hunsaker took the red ribbon for the second best.

Up to the time of closing the mail the judges had not decided on the comparative merits of the Leicesters and Cotswolds, the graded and fat sheep on exhibition.

THE TROTTING RACE.

From 10 A M till 2 P M, the hour of starting, the sun shown bright and strong, so that, notwithstanding the heavy rains of the two previous days, the track was in comparatively good condition. The attendance of all classes was very large, excellent order prevailed and deep interest was taken in the race. Shortly after 2 o'clock the horses were ordered to get ready. C P Bacon's dark bay stud horse Eph Maynard got the inside track, J J Welch's chestnut gelding Highlander, drew the second place and B B Acker's chestnut gelding McClellan, the outside track. After several false starts a fair one was accomplished. Eph Maynard soon got ahead and kept so all the way, coming in a few lengths first and was declared the winner of the first heat. The time made was 3:19½. Highlander made excellent trotting and contested the heat with Eph Maynard with great spirit. McClellan broke several times and came in considerably behind.

After the usual rest, the horses were called to the judges' stand for the second heat. The horses took the same position as in the former heat and a good start was made at once. The heat was warmly contested; the horses kept the same relative position as in the first heat, except that Highlander pressed Eph Maynard more closely for the first place. But in the home stretch Maynard put forth a grand effort and came in ahead by about two lengths, making the time in 3:17, winning the race in two strait heats.

The race was one mile heats, best two in three; the first prize is $350 and the second purse $150. Had the track been in good condition, in place of the time being 3:17 it would most likely have been about 2:42, Eph Maynard having done so in several trotting matches.

The great event of the day was

THE GRAND PARADE

At 3 o'clock the principal animals exhibited during the Fair were brought out on the open grounds and marched in an immense circle, surrounded by thousands of admiring spectators. Among the number were six of S G Reed's famous Shorthorn prize winners, R E Stewart & Sons sixteen thoroughbred Durhams and Ayrshires, G W Dimick's four Devon first class prize winners, Col Saxe & Sons two Shorthorn Bulls, Fisk & Walker's eight pure Durhams, J J Burden's fat ox of 2,400 pounds weight.

W C Myers of Jackson county paraded twelve of his famous Percheron horses harnessed in six wagons. This was a grand sight and worth coming a long distance and suffering all the inconvenience of the two days' rain to witness.

In the parade were thirty-seven splendid stud horses, thoroughbred horses, mares and colts.

Many of the leading gentlemen present, numerous visitors and ample judges stated that this display of thoroughbred cattle and horses was one of the grandest sights of the kind ever witnessed in Oregon that reflects honor on the State and demonstrates the rapid progress and great enterprise the farmers are making in all that pertains to raising first class stock.

FLORAL DEPARTMENT

This department is well represented and some spirit is manifested among the different competitors, but not in an angry mood. The ladies of Oregon seem to be taking hold of floral culture with an earnestness [illegible] determination to succeed and we predict that in a few years the varieties and successful cultivation will compare with many of the older States. There was one [illegible] variegated petunia that called [illegible] expression of admiration and it was well worthy of the praise bestowed upon it.

The committee finished their work late last evening and I went through the department this morning. The following have been awarded premiums:

Mr J D Smith 1st premium on white lap lily and [illegible] 1st premium on best collection of carnation pink. Mrs Smith had about thirty varieties in all on exhibition and [illegible] of very fine quality.

Mrs [illegible] Appleby had on exhibition [illegible]

[illegible] red fuchsia [illegible] premium for best specimen of tea rose. There were two splendid specimens of century plants, but I was informed that there were no premiums awarded for this particular plant. Probably the committee could not wait for the plant to bloom. There was an entry in the Miscellaneous Department of a plant called Chinese yam that the committee has not yet passed upon. Second premium for hanging baskets, 2d premium for best specimen of [illegible], 2d premium for best collection of mosses, 2d premium for best exhibit of salvias.

They are composed of evergreens, and worked in by specimens of all the cultivated flowers that the lady had in her herbarium and the blending of colors was faultless.

Mrs M M Adair won the first premium on colored mosses, second premium on portulacca.

F B Chase first premium on Calla (Ethiopean lily)—a fine specimen.

MILLINERY, SEWING, KNITTING, ETC

This department is not so well represented as at former Fairs, but the quality in many articles make up for a portion of the quantity. The remarkably bad weather deterred a great many ladies from attending, until too late to make entries, and it is proverbial that they will scarcely ever submit to have others make entries for them, thus one great cause of the meagre show in this useful and ornamental department. The following is a list of all the premiums taken by competitors:

Mrs Ida Babcock first premium for embroidered chair back and seat.

Miss Mary McMurray transferred handkerchief.

THE TERRITORIES

Rev G W Sloan and family have recently removed to the Puyallup reservation, to teach the little Indians there.

Two steam colliers are being built at San Francisco to ply between that port and Seattle, carrying coal and merchandise.

The small population of Tacoma is pretty well preached to. The Presbyterians, Methodists and Catholics have regular morning and evening services each Sunday.

The old military quarters erected by Gen Connor, in 1862 at Camp Douglas, Utah, are being torn down to make room for more substantial and handsomer buildings.

The Boulder News says that Anna Dickinson purchased a pair of those things, at Longmont, for the purpose of riding up Long's Peak, which allow a lady to ride on both sides of a horse at once.

Corinne is going to resume work on the abandoned artesian well, in hopes of obtaining fresh water sufficient to supply its abandoned Indians. How sad this will be for that chap who is making his fortune by selling Poor Lo mixed drinks.

The Courier has been authorized by Hon Judge Jacobs and Prof Hill, President and Vice President of the Territorial Educational Association, to give notice that the first public meeting of the Association will be held at Olympia on Wednesday, Oct. 22d, at 9 o'clock A M.

At the Seattle Fair last week, W. Owen Bush from Bush Prairie, near Olympia, outdid all competition in the surprising variety of grains. He had 55 varieties of wheat, 9 kinds of oats, 5 of barley, 5 of peas, 3 of rye, and 1 of buckwheat, and these were shown in sheaf as well as in grain. He had also 6 sorts of corn and 4 kinds of grasses.

The Courier says: "The vote on the railroad question was not as hotly contested as is usual when some political contest is on foot, but the total number of ballots cast shows that considerable interest was manifested. In Olympia, the vote stood 373 yes, 27 no, and one blank; Tumwater, 62 yes, 14 no and 2 scattering; Black river, 2 yes and 8 no. Tenino reported 55 yes, 25 no. Yelm reported 1 yes, 17 no. This makes the total vote 493 yes, 91 no, and 3 scattering. Chambers and Grand Mound precincts remain to be heard from, but will not likely change the result more than 30 or 40 votes."

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Old Jackson, a colored man, aged 111 years, died in Victoria on the 2d. He was born in Virginia in 1762.

The bull, Central Pacific, sold last year by S G Reed of Oregon, to Hon W F Tolmie, took the first premium at the Provincial Exhibition held at Victoria last week, over all competitors.

Mr Tiedemann has obtained from San Francisco an assay of the ore taken from his claim at Holland Point, and sent below for test. The result shows tin in large quantities with traces of lead.

Ex Mayor Harris recently took to Victoria a sample of goose wheat, which is said to yield a fraction under 100 bushels per acre, and weighs 67 pounds per bushel. It was grown on Nelson's ranch, Yakima valley.

Letters received by last mail, state that the Hudson Bay Co's barque Lady Lampson, Capt Gaudin, sailed from London for Vancouver Island on the 1st of September last, and was off Deal on the 4th. The Princess Royal, Capt Anderson, will sail on or about the middle of this month.

The Guardian says: "An old man named James Platt while working under a tree in the woods behind Sapperton, was struck by a falling branch torn off by the wind and instantly killed on Friday. He was an Englishman we are told who resided some time in the United States and also in Australia. He was about fifty years of age."

The Colonist has been shown by Bishop Seghers and Mr L Grancini a large number of specimens of Sitka gold bearing quartz from the Haley and other ledges described by us yesterday. The rock is very rich, being permeated with threads and ribbons of the precious metal. The specimens attract a great deal of attention. Quartz from Haley's ledge has assayed as high as $7,500 to the ton.

The Victoria Standard says a match between ten officers of H M S navy and ten men of the Victoria Volunteers was fired on Saturday at the Clover Point butts—closing at 5 o'clock—and witnessed by a few scores of persons from the overhanging bank. The shooting was poor on both sides, but that of the Volunteers was markedly so; in fact we do not remember worse shooting from their hands.

But the Archbishop goes on, "when I look upon foreign nations, and I may say also upon England, I see cause for grave foreboding."

OLYMPIA, Oct. 9, 1873.

House met at 10 A M, and after some preliminary business had been gone through with, the joint committee appointed yesterday waited on his Excellency Governor E. P. Quite a number of ladies were present together with the pupils belonging to the Female Seminary, all anxious to hear the Governor's first message, which was one of the most noble and eloquent addresses ever [illegible] to in this Capitol and it says much for the welfare of the Territory in having such a [illegible] as Chief Executive.

THE KING OF ARAUCANIA TO VISIT ENGLAND.—The King of Araucania, a rather remarkable personage, is going to visit England. His kingdom is in South America and is nominally subject to Chili. It has a population of about 2,000,000 and is said to be in a high state of civilization. The King, who was originally a French barrister, M. De Tourens by name, visited Araucania about 15 years ago and soon after succeeded in having himself chosen king. He has assumed the imposing title of Orelie Antoine the First and is described as amiable in disposition and modest in his habits. He will visit England to solicit manufacturers to send their wares to his kingdom.

CHEAP TRANSPORTATION

There are two questions of immediate, commanding importance which loom up before the people of the United States and which in the near future must be settled. They are the questions of cheap transportation and purity of administration, and as one shall be settled so will be the other. The farmers Granges in the West have been reinforced by the merchants of New York who met at the Cooper Institute September 10th and organized under the name of the Cheap Transportation Association.

It is not too much to say that an union of the merchants and farmers can rule this country against any combination which can be formed against them. If they once determine on certain measures desirable, no power on this continent can withstand them. Legislatures and executives must and will do their bidding. But their ends as well as their methods must be strictly just. The laborer is worthy of his hire—and any and all attempts to move the vast and ever increasing products of this country without an adequate reward, will inevitably fail, and we are glad, under the happy auspices which have originated these combined efforts for cheap transportation, that nothing so visionary will be attempted. What the people of the nation, what the people of Oregon desire is not less but greater railroad facilities, more railroads and better ones. They also demand that the water courses, the natural highways of travel and intercourse, shall be improved to the uttermost. But that all this may be accomplished, a war of gigantic proportions must be waged against the corporate bodies which now hold the transportation of all our vast and varied products in their hand.

Already have they intrenched themselves behind charters and laws and legal decisions, which render them nearly impregnable; but these bulwarks, strong as they are, is the weakest part of their citadel. Their presidents and vice-presidents and directors, with revenues which might make princes envious, with their enterainments and blandishments, their free passes and particular favors for friends, who will be subservient—and business hostilities against those who know not the ring and will not do his bidding render the railroad power quite independent of law, to say nothing of justice. But when we add to this the immense start they have in controling any and all political organizations through their army of employees, through the innumerable number of agents, common carriers, merchants, etc., those of whom they purchase and those to whom they sell—and those who, through fear or favor, will do their bidding, we can readily see that the majorities of any party, allied as are these forces to the venal clan of politicians who fit and often control all parties, are at the mercy of the railroad power. But their empire does not end here. They hold in their hand rich gifts which they distribute with a liberal hand to the ambitious for fame, to the seeker after, to the venal money, to the seeker for position—and as the result Legislatures do their bidding; courts record their will, and everywhere they appear above the law, and independent of law. But the people, who in past generations grappled with banks and were victorious, and who in the present struck at the monster slavery, intrenched and dominant as it was, and laid it low and made a new constitution and new law in which slavery is forbidden, are abundantly able to meet this new enemy of labor and render it not the master but the servant of the people. This country and this Government was founded by, and for the people, and no corporation shall wrest it from its predestined purposes and end. But to effect reforms such as are demanded by the hour, politicians under whatever banner they appear, who are in the market, whose votes are purchaseable, must be sent to rear, and any public officer who shall take a bribe on conviction thereof, should be sent to the State prison for life, and any corporation which, through their attorneys, shall be caught placing their bonds or moneys where, in the cant phrase, "it shall do the most good," shall work a forfeiture of such corporate rights, and the agent thus using their ill-gotten gains for such unworthy purposes should be punished by fine and imprisonment. A general corporation law should be passed, and these corporations should be required to make, at regular periods, full and explicit statements of all their transactions, the issue of new bonds the cost of running the road, the amount of freight, the number of passengers. And in all things, these monarchs of the land should be taught that they are creatures of law governed by law, and not above the law. These corporations should be taught that all such devices as watered stocks and Credit Mobilier operations are crimes and will be punished as crimes.

The New York Herald has been indicted by the grand jury of the county of New York for publishing lottery notices. The Times sportively remarks that all mention of the fact has been omitted in the columns of the greatest newspaper in the world adding with a perceptible tinge of jealousy. No doubt it will be equally oblivious of the other indictments which may be expected to follow for its indecent personal and quack advertisements it is promise to jog its memory.

Two women will occupy seats in the next Wyoming Legislature. There may be an appropriation for certain low seated chairs needed should the new members bring their cherubic singing angel songs for the bachelors of the Red Cloud Territory.

Over $12,000,000 worth of bonds have been purchased by the Treasury Department since the commencement of the panic, the annual saving of interest to the Government will be about $750,000 in gold.

The Patrons of Husbandry have been successful out West that some strong minded ladies propose to get up an organization to be called the "Patrons of Wifery," the main object being to keep husbands from staying out late at night.

CONCLUSION OF THE MEEK TRIAL

HILLSBORO, October 10, 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

At one o'clock yesterday the Court convened. The time up to 6 P. M. was taken up by counsel in arguing the case of Meek. A little sensation was created by an individual who certainly did not fully understand himself or if he did failed to get the Court to see it as the following facts will show:

AN INCIDENT

Whilst Judge Bronaugh was speaking on behalf of the defense and was moving heaven and earth as it were in behalf of the accused the death like stillness that pervaded the audience was broken by the above named individual entering the court room and waving his hands wildly above his head exclaimed "Say there is one witness you haven't sworn yet."

Judge Upton—"Sheriff bring that man up here."

On arriving in front of the Judge's desk the Judge addressed him thus: "What is your name?"

With all confidence: Charles R. McKay.

Judge—"Have you been drinking to-day?"

Culprit, in a loud voice—"Yes, yer Honor."

Judge—"Sheriff take this man off and lock him up until this trial is over."

The culprit's face assumed the most woe begone appearance imaginable. Hanging his head and casting a sheepish look at Bronaugh, he exclaimed: "That's pretty damn cool. I thought I was being examined as a witness." He however allowed himself to be led out. Through the solicitation of friends afterward the Judge allowed him to be taken home.

When the interruption first took place the effect was electrical, causing the entire audience to dodge and some to spring to their feet but the whole affair ended so ludicrously that the whole house burst into an uncontrolable fit of laughter in which the Judge had to join.

THE CASE RESUMED

The argument ended at 6 o'clock P. M. and the jury were instructed and retired. At the close of the instructions the defendant broke down and wept like a child. He was conducted to his cell and a strong guard placed over him, his sister, Miss Olive, going with him and taking up her position by his side and was only induced by the Sheriff to leave him at the hour of 1 A. M. when she went to the Sheriff's house several blocks away from the jail.

Few had gone to bed, all being too anxious as to the result. Counsel Hare and Bronaugh were locked in one of the lower rooms busily engaged in consultation and drawing papers in case the verdict should be against them.

THE JURY AGREE.

At 2 o'clock A. M. the bailiff was notified that the jury had agreed. The news spread like wildfire and by the time the accused was brought in the house was well filled. The Court ordered the jury to be brought in. On the appearance of the jury the audience became as silent as death.

THE VERDICT

The foreman, W. H. H. Myers, walked firmly forward and handed the verdict to the Judge, who handed it to the Clerk with the simple word "Read." The Clerk took the verdict and commenced reading, but suddenly stopped and gave it a closer scrutiny. The breathing of defendant became very hard and counsel arose and bending over the Clerk's desk looked anxiously at him. The pause however was only momentary. He resumed reading and as the words "Not Guilty" fell from his lips, the father of the defendant, Col. Meek, sprang to his feet and, giving vent to one of those peculiar

MOUNTAIN WHOOPS,

Which are enough to set the hair on one's head to bristling, sank back in his seat. The defendant fell on Mr. Hare's neck and gave way to sobs and tears, thanking him for his untiring efforts in his behalf. The defendant then addressed the jury as follows:

DEFENDANT SPEAKS

"Gentlemen—You have this day by your verdict, acquitted me of the charge of murder. Standing before you in the presence of this Court, I do most solemnly promise you that I will never allow a drop of whisky to go down my throat."

CONCLUSION

On being released, and after shaking hands with many friends he sprang like a hunted deer down the stairway and ran to the house of the Sheriff to inform his sister of the verdict, but he met her a short way from the house coming back. We leave this meeting to the conjecture of the reader. The devotion of this noble-hearted sister is worthy of bestowal on men who have lived a better life than C. W. Meek, and one which can only be atoned for, in a measure, by a rigid observance of morality, temperance and virtue.

WASHINGTON COUNTY LETTER

HILLSBORO, Oct. 11, 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In the Progressionist of Oct. 9th there appeared an article entitled "A Dose of Their Own." I see nothing particular in the communication to answer, except the old assertion that Forest Grove and Hillsboro and more especially the latter place, has been trying to break down Cornelius and that they—the Hillsboro folks—have used their influence to shut off all communication to Cornelius.

So far as that is concerned the editor has been misled by false statements. We say it and defy proof to the contrary, that no one in Hillsboro raised a hand against the road going north into the Cornelius plain from our town except paid attorneys and that the fight was strictly between that town and Centerville precinct. That the Commissioners refused lumber to bridge the creek I am informed by them is incorrect. They offered lumber for the bridging of the stream alone but did not feel able to furnish it for the low lands on each side this season and refused other points, equally as important, on the same ground.

As to the refusal to strike off Cornelius into a precinct, the Court only laid the matter over for future action as several months would intervene before such set-off would be needed. The necessity of a special election was not known, because there was no objection either in Hillsboro or expressed by the Commissioners Court to Cornelius having an election precinct if they wanted one.

And why a man should make such assertions and stick to them in one breath and call for harmony in another and in the next lash individuals unmercifully politically because they have a slight difference of opinion as to choice of localities for location and what a wrong or crime in individuals. Republicans of Washington county have never wavered from the vital principle of Republicanism on account of the wrongs of any individual either in the county or State though differences of opinion I admit do exist between the editor and his few friends and the masses of the Republican party as to what constitutes a wrong or a crime and how. Mr. Progressionist if you really mean to assist in uniting the Republican party in the county and let every man vote the ticket that he wants to and consider all political friends that do not work against the vital principles of the party would it not be well to let these ill hearsay assertions drop and his countenance this little game which has well nigh deprived many honest men from giving the party their support and which gives so much satisfaction to the Democracy that they are encouraged in their efforts to continue the work already begun.

A REPUBLICAN.

THE THRONE... STRICKEN PANIC.—The London Times at the ... the ... an ... ral retrospect of the late financial panic in the Eastern States says:

The recklessness and dishonesty characterizing the management ... the greatest undertakings in America have ... a chronic nervousness which is momentarily liable to become acute. Even Americans are not all smart men of daring speculators. The Times thinks. The danger has disappeared for the present but political and financial causes are liable to reproduce it at any time. America is with its immense field for enterprise and comparatively limited capital is always liable to panics. The improvements made in Western communication are most useful and profitable but may cause further trouble. The entire blame for the disaster rests upon the unsound monetary system of the country.

HON A HINMAN'S DEFENSE

FOREST GROVE, October 6th, 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I ask the favor of replying through your columns to some malicious libels published in the Forest Grove Independent respecting myself. It the first place allow me to state that Frank E. Myers, the publisher of this most infamous sheet is a boy about nineteen years of age, a perfect ... But ... expelled last year for having ... the ... possessing ... to the ... of ... the ... And he ... in this ... of the 4th inst. In this ... the first libel I notice is this: There is no man in Washington county who does not have palm to ... river ... The initials ... Alanson Hinman ... This ... is ... libel. There are reliable men in this county who trusted with me during that time I was in Idaho City who will state under oath or otherwise that they never heard my integrity called in question and that if such a transaction as alleged had taken place they could not have failed to have known it. General McCarver was there a trader during all of time and a number of gentlemen of like good standing, Mr. John Ritley of Portland, Mr. Craft of Idaho City who was trading all the time I was and has been there ever since—all these gentlemen will state that they believe it to be a malicious libel to damage my character where I am not personally known. No responsible party dare assert what this irresponsible hoodlum has printed. I charge that the Independent has attacked me in a manner that neither the Bulletin nor any other responsible journal of this State will venture to do. I also charge that he has received money from Hipple or his friends (or I have been misinformed) to defame me in every possible manner. Who doubts this in Washington county? Is this the way they propose to defend a bigamist? Citizens it is time you understand this ring. They maliciously attack private citizens because they will not endorse a bigamist alias John H. Mitchell.

It may not be long before they will ... the fact that they have no higher regard for life than they have for character. In another item he alludes to me as he has heretofore as though I had while Collector of Customs been guilty of defrauding the Government. The Bulletin and Statesman have both referred to the same thing. I state that the Bulletin dare not assert that I ever defrauded the Government out of a dime while I held the office. The Statesman and Independent may do so being not responsible and on that account are safe in libeling whom they please.

Were I so disposed I could name certain officials in this State placed in position by Hipple and sanctioned by the ring who have shown themselves under different circumstances to be dishonest and unreliable and who have lost their situations, when those facts became known. The public understand the situation of things and the Hipple ring cannot deceive or deter them.

I trust Republicans will investigate this corrupt ring and determine how long they shall continue to rule. Did they not at the Albany Convention go beyond what should be tolerated in any act of men in the passage of the Hipple resolution? It was a moral question one that each and every Republican had a right to pass upon for himself. And since the Convention attempted to disgrace the entire Republican party in the passage of this nefarious resolution I deem it just and proper for them to receive a rebuke, and so I hope as many Republicans as believe that the Hipple resolution should have not been passed will either stay away from the polls or go and act like freemen by voting as their judgment shall dictate irrespective of party ties.

I conversed with Rev. Mr. Geary at the Convention and stated to him that I would support him in the Convention unless they passed a Hipple resolution. In such an event I would oppose him. In fact almost any one except Caples might have been nominated and elected if no resolution had been passed endorsing Hipple. Hipple was there and nothing short of an endorsement would answer him and so the Federal officials of the State forced it through and the opposition must be slandered in every possible way as enemies of the Republican party, sore heads, etc.

I am a Republican and I never yet scratched a ticket never yet bolted the nominee of my party. And when the Statesman said I had done so in 1868 it told a falsehood and I can prove it from the records. All Republicans who wish to disgrace the State of Oregon in evidencing the fact that we sanction bigamy and all the crimes Hipple stands charged with will on the 13th of this month vote for Hi Smith. Those opposed will I presume stay away from the polls.

PUGET SOUND EXPORTS

The following is a carefully prepared statistical table of the shipping exports etc, for the year ending August 31st 1873:

TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

In foreign vessels	$243,29[illegible]
In American vessels	41[illegible] 618
Total	$660,910

Of the above there was exported of lumber in foreign vessels, 20,502,000 feet. In American vessels 16,818,000 feet. Total, [illegible] 000 feet.

Live stock exported to British Columbia, 10,110 head.

TOTAL EXPORTS.

To British Columbia	$235,348
Sandwich Islands	25,014
Australia	38,136
Peru	187,183
Chili	141,948
China	18,112
Argentine Republic	2,511
England	9,760
Mexico	2,892
Total	$660,910

The foregoing does not exhibit the exports to San Francisco and other domestic ports, but it is estimated that the exports to foreign countries (37½ million feet) of lumber is not more than one fifth of the whole quantity sent out of Puget Sound.

During the year at the Puget Sound Custom House there entered 41 ships 44,036-93/100 tons, 185 barks brigs etc 57,575-51/100 tons, 180 steamers, 70,514-04/100 tons. Total vessels 414 total tons, 177,126-48/100.

Cleared—38 ships 40,343 01 tons, 131 barks brigs, etc, 30,109 86 tons, 182 steamers 78,215 51 tons. Total vessels 5[illegible]3 total tons 148,668 38.

The total number of vessels in the district is 105—25,953 tons.

A Polish lady of rank, twenty seven years of age, and "a perfect Juno in beauty," was recently sentenced to a long term of imprisonment in Berlin for indulging in certain acts of theft. While the prosecution was in progress she inherited a fortune of 200,000 roubles and her advocate now moved the court for her release in consideration of a heavy bail. The court however, refused to accede to the request.

The N. Y. Herald describes a scene when the panic was at its highest. At eleven o'clock in the Fifth Avenue Hotel there was so much confusion and dismay among brokers and brokers clerks and among bankers and bankers clerks that the majority of the guests of the house retired to bed. Bradlaugh the English republican stated to a friend that he was astonished and he had never seen such an excited class of people before.

It is the Bowling Green Democrat which tells this: During an address by Mr. —— in Allen county a few days ago a gentleman in the audience arose partly ... and with pathetic tenderness remarked ... He had been sitting on a wasp and the wasp had just noticed it.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 11, 1873.

CITY.

MORE INSANE.—Four insane persons have been sent to the Asylum this week from Multnomah county, which may be regarded as being a fair average business for seven days in the insane. The two last were examined yesterday, and orders issued for their immediate removal to the Asylum. Their names are Edward Bryan and Robert L. Ogle. Bryan is aged about 48 years. He is an Englishman by birth, and a longshoreman by occupation. His ruling passion appears to be to appropriate other persons' property and convert it to his own private use. On these points of conscience he seems to have no qualms. Some time ago Bryan was placed in the Asylum, but as he demeaned himself in an orderly manner, and seemed to be as near compos mentis as could be reasonably expected from a person possessing no higher grade of intelligence, he was allowed to go at large. Of late he manifested strong symptoms of kleptomanic insanity combined with idiocy, and his removal to the asylum became advisable. Ogle came to this State from Illinois in 1853, and settled in Marion county, where he is well known. He is aged 47 years, and is the father of four children. The cause of this insanity is unknown. Both these parties were removed to the asylum yesterday afternoon.

WORK RESUMED.—Heavy rains which have visited the country during the present week have played sad havoc with the Stark-street sewer along the excavation near Front. Large quantities of the loose earth, softened by the water, have become detached from the sides, and were precipitated into the ditch. Many tons of earth have thus caved from each side, and filled up the ditch to a depth of six or eight feet. This, coupled with the many vexatious detentions in obtaining the tile, and the tardiness with which the work has necessarily progressed, must be rather disheartening to the contractor, Mr. Parker. But he seems determined to push the work through to completion as rapidly as adverse circumstances will permit. Work was resumed yesterday as soon as the sun shone clear, and good weather was assured. The loose earth is being thrown out of the ditch, and that which is lying on the surface will be removed to the foot of Stark street, and deposited at one side of the pontoon. All that is required is about two weeks of good weather, and the sewer, which has called for so many censorious paragraphs, will be finished, much to the satisfaction of the public as well as the contractor.

MR. McCORMICK'S LECTURE.—A large and attentive audience was present last evening at Philharmonic Hall, at the lecture delivered by Mr. S. J. McCormick, in behalf of the Father Mathew Temperance Society. In addition to repeating his lecture on the life and eminent services of Father Mathew, the great Apostle of Temperance, the speaker told a variety of anecdotes, displaying sparkling Irish wit and humor, illustrative of the life and labors of Father Mathew. Mr. McCormick also sang, during the evening, a number of descriptive and tragic songs, among which were, "The Wife's Dream," "The Gin Fiend," "The Rum Maniac," "I've Drank my Last Glass," etc. Prof. Gans presided at the piano during the evening, and interspersed the exercises with some choice instrumental music. The lecture was very successful, and will net this very excellent society a very neat sum.

CRIMINAL CASES.—Up to date, the following are the number of criminal cases, classified, which are to be tried at the coming term of the Circuit Court: Cases continued from last term of Court—forgery, 3; uttering a forged check, 2; larceny, 2; refusing to perform the office of Special Constable, 1; adultery, 1; assault with intent to kill, 1. The following new cases have been filed since the last term of Court: forgery, 2; assault with a dangerous weapon, 2; larceny, 6; assault with intent to kill, 1; perjury, 1; threatening to commit a crime, 1; giving liquor to an Indian, 2; larceny from the person, 1; obtaining a signature by false pretense, 1; larceny from a dwelling, 1.

PASSENGERS.—The steamer Ajax will sail for San Francisco this morning, carrying hence the following passengers: Joseph Holladay, Mrs. J. E. Wyche and daughter, W. P. Baker, wife and child, Mrs. Slater and daughter, T. B. Van Boskirk, James Helam, S. D. Howe, A. M. Linn, C. Turnbull, H. B. Hayes, J. G. Walker, I. F. Leeman, Louis Liebes, Miss Nellie Watson, D. L. Davis, Miss Powers, Miss Cardinell, Mrs. S. N. Taylor, Mrs. Bradford, J. Coulter, wife and daughter, J. Hoyt, S. Brinkley, George Briggs, Mr. Price, M. S. Wallace, W. H. Humphrey, W. H. Fife, A. Parksher, Mrs. C. E. Hunt, T. J. Shadden and wife, Mrs P. Connor, and 25 in the steerage.

GONE UP THE RIVER.—Late on Thursday afternoon, the steamer Beaver started for the upper Wallamet, intending to reach the highest accessible point along the river. Being of very light draught, she will doubtless succeed in crossing all the shoals and bars. Early yesterday morning the Shoshone was dispatched to follow the Beaver. This boat draws considerably more water than the Beaver, and it is very questionable how far she will be able to ascend. The effects of the late rain have produced scarcely a perceptible change in the depth of water, and now that dry weather is again promised, the rise of the river will prove only temporary.

TAME ELK.—Yesterday an elk was paraded through the streets and attracted much attention. The animal was caught in the Cascade mountains when only a year old by Jack Bentley, who took it to his place on the Molalla, where he raised it. He sold it yesterday to Mr. Edward Kohn, of this city, who will ship it to San Francisco on the steamer leaving for that port next Friday, where it will be taken charge of by a gentleman who will keep it on his grounds in the vicinity of the city.

THOSE STEAMERS.—The new steam engines, for companies No. 1 and 3, are no doubt now in San Francisco, and may be expected soon. These engines were shipped from the manufactory in New Hampshire about the 10th of September. They were expected to arrive in San Francisco about the 4th inst. At all events, whether these engines are now in San Francisco or not, they will most probable be shipped for Portland on the steamer which is to sail on the 18th inst.

NOT YET REPAIRED.—Considerable damage resulted to the O. S. N. Co.'s new wharf in the giving away of one section and the precipitation of many tons of wheat to the lower story. However, the damage will not be so great as the company were led at first to think. No grain of any consequence was damaged or lost, and a small sum, compared with what was at first anticipated, will be necessary to repair the building. This work is to be commenced in a few days.

CONSTRUCTING AN ELEVATOR.—Several carpenters are now engaged in constructing a grain elevator on the new wharf built last season by the O. S. N. Co. This important improvement will be finished in the course of a week or two. It will be operated by a steam engine when completed. The capacity to elevate grain from steamers will be about one ton per minute, which will certainly be a great saving of time and human muscle.

PAYING FOR LICENSE.—Yesterday being the last day of grace for those who are compelled to obtain city licenses, a grand rush was made on the Clerk's office. Of course it is but natural for the human mind to procrastinate the performance of an unpleasant duty (such for instance as to pay for licenses) until the last moment, and the Auditor had a practical demonstration of that fact yesterday.

BLANKET THIEF.—An old offender, named Thomas, was arrested last evening for stealing a pair of blankets from a second-hand furniture store on First street. In his possession was found about one dozen keys of various sizes and make, which he evidently used to advantage in gaining access to buildings after night. He was lodged in jail and will be tried this morning.

IN ONE WEEK.—The following quantities of wheat have come down the Columbia river during the present week, up to last night: Monday, 50 tons; Tuesday, 120 tons; Wednesday, 80 tons; Thursday, 60 tons; Friday, 50 tons; total, 360 tons. This is scarcely an average quantity, but will enable one to form some idea of the amount of grain which is pouring in.

GERMAN SERVICES.—The vestry of Trinity Church, at their last meeting, voted the use of that church on the first Sunday evening of the month for the purpose of holding a service in the German language. The first of these services will be held on Sunday evening, November 2d, conducted by the Rev. John Rosenberg, with a sermon in German.

SCHOONER SUPERIOR.—This vessel, which arrived at port a few days since from San Francisco, has completed discharging her cargo. She is now loading with wheat for the port from whence she came, and will be ready to proceed down the river in a few days.

COURTS TO MEET.—The United States Circuit Court will convene on Monday. The United States District Court will meet on Tuesday next. The Circuit Court for this county will convene on Monday, and the County Court on Tuesday.

BAND WILL PLAY.—Central Market promises to become the scene of superior attractions this evening. Commencing at 8 o'clock the East Portland band will discourse numerous lively airs. This fine concert will last until 10 o'clock.

FIRST PREMIUMS.—We learn by dispatch last evening, from Mr. Geo. L. DePrans, that the Guild piano which he has on exhibition carried off the first premium—a silver medal. The Burdett organ took the same.

NO COURT.—Judge Denny is now absent from the city, attending the State Fair. As a consequence, there was no Court held yesterday morning. There will probably be no Court held until Monday morning.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—Rev. T. F. Royal will preach at the North Portland Sunday School Hall, corner of Ninth and D streets, to-morrow (Sunday) evening, and regularly on Sunday evenings thereafter at 7 P. M.

LECTURE.—The lecture at Hall street Church last night by Mr. J. Q. Welch, was listened to by a respectable and appreciative audience. All were pleased, and will gladly return to hear his lecture to-night.

CATHEDRAL CHOIR.—The thanks of the Father Mathew Society are due the Cathedral choir, for the excellent vocal music rendered last evening during the lecture delivered at Philharmonic Hall.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Steamer off at 6 A. M.

Election next Monday.

A number of persons will hie to Salem this morning.

Invitations to the Reception at the Progress Club Rooms next week, are out.

For your Sunday dinner procure a supply of oysters from Quinn's market, Washington st.

Forty head of beef cattle arrived on the Dalles boat on Thursday evening from Eastern Oregon.

Waiting till a late hour in the evening for the mails is not the thing to suit the people. All on account of the fair, you know.

The bark Rival and schooner H. L. Tiernan sailed from San Francisco for this port last Monday, and may be expected next week.

A small but spirited drove of cattle which persistently refused to go on board the ferry boat yesterday morning, afforded much amusement to a crowd of spectators.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN, now ready with full reports of the Fair, corner-stone laying of the Capitol building, execution of the Modocs, and other matters of interest, making it an excellent number. Be sure to procure a copy.

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

By a special dispatch to the OREGONIAN from Salem last evening, we are apprised of the fact that the long looked for game between the College and Pioneer Clubs, was played yesterday, and our boys met with a disastrous defeat. The annexed score tells its own story:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Pioneers	1	2	2	5	3	[illegible]	7	1	0	—22
College	5	5	4	3	12	5	12	6	0	—52

The same clubs play again to-day, and with the assistance of Badger, the Pioneers may return the compliment.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICES.

In the First Presbyterian Church morning services will be conducted by the pastor. In the evening will be held the regular Sunday-school concert, when an address and a reading may be expected, besides the usual music and recitations from the Scriptures.

The Rev. John Rosenberg will officiate on Sunday morning and afternoon at St. Stephens' Chapel, corner of Madison and Fourth, and in the evening at the Mission Chapel, corner of Caruthers and First streets, at half past 7 o'clock. Seats free in both churches.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL.

Marshall's Japs. were in the West Indies at last accounts.

Montague and Gerretta are at the Howard Athenaeum, Boston.

Madame Anna Bishop and troupe were at Grass Valley, California, on the 8th inst.

Vivian and troupe, the Rosedale Dramatic Company, Wilson's circus and Reed's Panorama have been at Salem this week.

PERSONAL.

The numerous friends of Mrs. F. P. Church will be pleased to learn that she has returned to the city, and will take charge of her department in the Portland Academy and Female Seminary on next Monday. This will be especially gratifying to the many children who always flock around her and welcome her return. This being the middle of the term a large increase in attendance is expected.

AMUSEMENTS.

Chas. Vivian, assisted by a number of talented artists, will appear at the Masonic Hall, in this city, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of next week.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Joseph Castello cooks oysters deliciously in every style at Mat. Keith's. Read his announcement.

FASHION NOTES.

No change in gentlemen's fashions is to be noted.

White sealskin is a new fur which will be much worn.

The new styles of masculine neckgear are varied and tasteful.

Gigantic fans are in vogue and could easily be used as parasols.

Monograms on note paper have gone completely out of fashion.

Love-birds are the latest pets. No boudoir should be without them.

Everything is loaded with trimming, from the slipper to the bonnet.

Ladies' hats this season consist chiefly of two bows of ribbon and a stiff ostrich feather.

The most fashionable jewelry at present is of oxydized silver "picked out" with beaten gold.

The Elizabethan ruffs are assuming proportions more ponderous and awe-inspiring than ever.

The skirts of riding habits should only be fourteen inches longer than the ordinary dress-skirt.

Point Russe embroidery or "back-stitching" is the favorite employment of fashionable idlers.

Pumps and black silk stockings, with scarlet cloaks, are the proper things for gentlemen's full dress.

Asthma seems to be a very prevalent disease in young-lady-dom. They smoke cigarettes, by the doctor's order.

A gentleman lately refused to celebrate his silver wedding on the ground that he was not yet reduced to beggary.

The blue colors with white spots, so much worn during the summer, still continue in favor in heavier materials.

The Alpine hat is by no means complete without the added charm of a black cock's feather stuck in the band.

Ladies and military men wear their implements of warfare at their side—the former, umbrellas, the latter swords.

Linen Java canvas embroidered in double cross-stitch, is made into various pretty things for the toilette and bedroom.

Bodices high at the back and square in front are en regle. With these are worn the Medici or Francis ruffles, which are quite the rage now.

Buttons are worn immensely large, of burnished or blue steel cut into an imitation of diamonds. Undersleeve studs of carved wood are also much in fashion.

Very quiet equipages are now in fashion, having entirely superseded the flashy "four-in-hands," "unicorns," and "tandems" which have so long ruled the r. n l.

Bows for the hair and neck are worn more than ever. Black gros-grain ribbon, embroidered with wreaths of rosebuds and daisies, is much used for this purpose.

Watered ribbon sashes are very popular. Side sashes have a succession of long loops, and two uneven ends hanging from the belt on the left side, quite far back.

To enable gentlemen to get through their visiting list, the following rule has been adopted: An ordinary evening call is fifteen minutes; half an hour is a visit; longer than that is spending the evening.

A young fellow, who owns two sisters, declares that the depth of human misery is touched by one who travels with two girls, two canary birds, and a minute and irrepressible cat. He speaks whereof he knows.

After declaring all summer that feminine coiffures were to be very high (in position, not in price,) fashion now stultifies herself by declaring that "woman's crowning glory" is to be worn in a sort of long queue hanging low on the back.

NEW BOOKS.

The following new works have just been received and added to the Portland Library:

A Simpleton; a story of the day, by Charles Reade.

Romance of Old Court-Life in France; by Frances Elliott.

Purple and Fine Linen; a novel, by Edgar Fawcett.

The Overland Monthly, vol. 10.

Clifford Troup; a Georgia story, by Maria Jourdan Westmoreland.

The Coming Race; by Bulwer Lytton.

A Brown Stone Front; a story of New York and Saratoga, by Chandos Fulton.

Powder and Gold; a story of the Franco-Prussian war, translated from the German of Levin Shucking.

The Bells; a romantic story, from the French of Erckmann-Chatrian.

The Bazar; book of health.

I Go a-Fishing; by W. C. Prime.

Liberty, Equality and Fraternity; by James Fitzjames Stephens, Q. C.

Quinstar; a novel, by the author of Blindpits.

Elective Affinities; by Goethe.

The Heiress of the Family; by Mrs. Mackenzie Daniel.

Buckskin Mose, or Life from the Lakes to the Pacific, as Actor, Circus Rider, Detective, Ranger, Gold Digger, Indian Scout and Guide; written by himself.

The Oxford Methodists: Memoirs of the Rev. Messrs. Clayton, Ingham, Gambold, Hervey and Broughton, with biographical notices of others, by the Rev. L. Lyerman.

Bellehood and Bondage; by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens.

Against the Stream: The Story of Heroic Age in England; by the author of the "Schonberg Cotta Family."

Strangers and Pilgrims: A Novel; by Miss M. E. Braddon.

Forever and Ever: A Drama of Life; by Florence Marryat.

Woman against Woman; by Florence Marryat.

VINNIE'S PERSISTENCY.—A correspondent writes concerning the models for the Thomas statue at Pittsburgh: "They are the meanest lot of models ever collected, and almost any Italian that peddles plaster images in any country village could have sent in a better specimen. Miss Ream has probably the best figure of Thomas on a horse, but the horse itself is simply wonderful. It is bunchy, doubled up, its neck awry, and its head turned away as if it were still suffering from the terrible equine disorder of last year, known as epizootic, or almost any other name. She came here reinforced with letters from Sherman and other prominent men, and hung on the committee like the veriest leech. It was fruitless, however, for the committee threw out the whole pack, and will look out for other artists."

Emil Lowenstein & Co., recently burned out by the great fire, have removed their stock of Carpets, Curtains, Coverings, etc. to No. 87 FRONT STREET, between Washington and Alder, where they can be found, selling off the entire Stock AT COST, in order to start soon in new quarters with an Entire New Stock. All persons indebted to them are requested to call at their temporary place of business and settle up.

Every mother should see that her darling boy is well clothed for the winter. Messrs. BECK & WALDMAN make a specialty of selling Youths' clothing, and have a complete stock on hand. The prices are fixed to suit those who wish to economize. They have a full line of gentlemen's fall suits and everything in furnishing goods. They give satisfaction to all. Be sure to recollect this well known firm.

Many valuable horses die from the effects of colic. The best thing to do in a case of this kind is to pour a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment into a long necked junk bottle, add half pint of molasses and water then pour the whole down the horse's throat. In ten minutes the horse will begin to eat.

Parson's Purgative Pills will greatly relieve, if not entirely cure, dyspepsia when everything else fails. They have been tried in some desperate cases and have given more relief than any other medicine.

Forty years experience have tested the virtues of Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and it is now generally acknowledged to be the best remedy extant for pulmonary and lung diseases, embracing the whole range from a slight cold to a settled consumption. Were it not for its merits, it would long since have "died, and made no sign."

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU is the only reliable remedy for diseases of the urinary organs. Take it at once, and do not be imposed upon by quacks and impostors. We are glad to learn that the absence of the celebrated Dr. Helmbold has not prevented the continued manufacture of the Buchu, so well known as the only efficient remedy for diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs. There are counterfeits of this most excellent medicine, to insure has proprietor's private stamp. John F. Henry, New York, Sole Agent.

A UNIVERSAL REMEDY.—BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES, for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections, stand first in public favor and confidence; this result has been acquired by a test of many years.

PLACES OF VOTING.

For the benefit of voters we publish the following polling places in the city, and also the names of the judges. Every voter should read this carefully and preserve it, so that there may be no misunderstanding as to the polling places:

South Portland—No. 1 Stable, corner Front and Market streets—Judges: J. W. Whalley, J. P. O. Lownsdale, Wm. Church.

Madison—County Court House; Judges: Levi Estes, C. S. Silver, E. Corbett.

Morrison—Lime House, Third street, between Yamhill and Taylor streets; Judges: Josiah Failing, J. M. Breck, Jacob Mayer.

North Portland—Third Street, between Ash and A streets; Judges: Wm. Wadhams, L. P. W. Quimby, M. Seller.

Couch—Bill's Warehouse, First, between B and C streets; Judges: Geo. L. Story, Levi Anderson, Jos. Tucker.

Washington—North side E street between West Park and Eight streets; Judges: Wm Cornell, W. W. Spaulding, E. J. Jeffries.

Central—Myers' Barn, southeast corner of Ninth and Taylor streets; Judges: J. H. Woodard, L. Brooke, C. M. Carter.

Oregon—Dwelling, southeast corner of Columbia and Park streets; Judges: Van B. DeLashmutt, A. Waltz, N. Walker.

New Life for the Languid.

Perfect health is vouchsafed to few. Probably ninety people out of every hundred who call themselves healthy have their "turns" of languor, exhaustion, depression of spirits and bodily pain. At these times a wineglassful of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is as refreshing as "the shadow of a rock in a weary land." It invigorates and rests the system and cheers the mind. The effect of the Bitters in cases of nervous debility, produced either by undue physical exertion, over-study, intense anxiety, or any other cause, is wonderfully reviving and invigorating. In fact, this healthful vegetable restorative possesses medicinal properties which entitle it to the rank of an article of prime necessity, and it should be kept on hand in every dwelling, and promptly taken as a remedy for all the minor ailments as well as for more serious complaints.

NOTICE.

COLEMAN'S EUCALYPTUS

Dr. J. S. Coleman's C... Extract of Eucalyptus is a preparation embodying all the valuable medical ... the Eucalyptus, which is cultivated in nearly every California ... become the household remedy for all diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER and URINARY ORGANS, and SEMINAL WEAKNESS. It seems to have a direct affinity for the GENITO-URINARY ORGANS and their surroundings, and cures them by its alterative, healing and balsamic properties ... any other known remedy.

It is an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the mucous and serous membranes, such as BRONCHITIS, HACKING COUGH, NAUSEA DURING PREGNANCY, DYSPEPSIA, LEUCORRHEA, etc.

This preparation is the result of Dr. Coleman's experiments with the medicinal properties of the tree in the U. S. Marine Hospital in San Francisco, in 1871 and 1872, where he had unusual facilities for testing the various methods of preparing the remedy, and its uses. It can be relied upon as certain to give the promised results, and hundreds of testimonials of its efficacy can be seen at his office, 406 Kearney street, San Francisco.

COLEMAN'S DOUBLE EXTRACT OF EUCALYPTUS is a powerful, yet harmless, febrifuge, and is a special preparation for the treatment of the malarious fevers of our interior valleys, and is warranted to cure any case of FEVER AND AGUE treated with it according to directions, while the baneful results of the usual Quinine and arsenical remedies of those diseases are entirely avoided.

FOR PHYSICIANS, Coleman's Fluid Extract of Eucalyptus in 1-lb bottles.

JOHN PAUL ON THE PANIC

HOW AND WHY IT CAME ABOUT

WILLIAMSBURGH Mass, Sept 22—Never again will I leave New York for any period of time however brief something is sure to happen if I'm not there. After finishing Saratoga it was clearly my duty to return to the city but yielding against my better judgment to the persuasion of friends I prolonged my absence for a visit to Williamsburgh and a terrible panic is the result.

When I say that I have seen this panic coming for three years past I simply put on the robes of prophecy which every one is reaching for now that the event has arrived. That I am not attiring myself in this popular cloth as well is simply because I have been wearing mourning, as it were, too long. All the summer though I have not conversed with any eminent financier mother and longer way of spelling speculator—who did not see a panic about looming darkly in the distance, and did not declare an intention of not being caught out in the rain. But where are the umbrellas at the present writing?

At no time I suppose has even the most sanguine operator for a continued rise in securities believed that the thousands who were buying bought for permanent investment. Each knew that his neighbor as well as himself bought simply to sell to some one else at an advanced price and each intended in his own mind to be a little smarter than the other and get out first. Not a man was there among all the busy buyers and sellers who did not fully understand that the last purchaser would come to grief, but the idea of being that unfortunate "last man" I venture to say, did not occur to one individual mind.

Impressed with a vague notion that if the many arrived at the conclusion that it was best to be getting out at about the same time there might be a rush for it and being besides a little lame I thought I'd start first. So here I am. How it got out that I deemed it wise to unload at a loss I cannot imagine but you see the result—a wide-spread sacrifice of securities and ruinous panic. Sooner than have had this happen however, I'd have consented to stay in and be ruined—for a consideration.

Looking back at it now, I don't know that I'd have got out if I hadn't had to get. Men addicted to the street are much like those who become habituated to loafing late in bar rooms—they don't go till they're kicked out. My health failed me, the doctors prescribed quiet and rest so I went to Saratoga.

Well, as I was saying, we all knew this storm was coming. But I have yet to see the man who thought it was coming just yet or took in his lower sails if he had his topsails. When it came or showed itself near at hand would be time enough to be dodging, they thought. And my father once had a horse in his stable a fine, spirited creature, which I was fond of fooling around. The old gentleman warned me that he might kick, but I didn't thank him for that, of course he might kick—any horse might, for that matter. But I hadn't been round the stables when supposed to be at school for nothing. I had noticed that when a horse kicked he laid his ears back. So I walked round John the Baptist'—that was the noble animal's name through why so christened unless because of his ability to kick a path through a wilderness I do not know—just as usual, and relied on a religious observation of his ears for safety. At the least dropping of that barometer I stood ready to jump. One day, having business about his manger—business not wholly unconnected with a hen's nest—I approached by what may be designated as a flank movement, and requested him to stand over on the other side of the stall, as I wished to come in. That there might be no mistake about my meaning I made it quite clear by poking the flank most in my way gently with a pitchfork. But I was careful to watch his ears very carefully while making the request. Now, if you'll believe me, I didn't see his ears drop, neither did I see his foot rise. But I did see a boy about my size strike against the other side of the barn with a bang. And after an hour or two, when I had collected my scattered thoughts and picked up the jewsharps, and jack-knives, and green apples and stolen watermelons that the industrious animal had kicked out of me, and climbed up in the hay-loft for the double purpose of picking up the top of my head—which, according to all evidence, must have landed there—and getting a better view of what was going on down below, I remarked that that horse's ears were laid down on his back as flat as though a ... But the warning did me very little good then. And when I went into the ... and the old gentleman ... that he told me so and that it would only have saved me right if the horse had kicked me into the middle of next week, I found no relief for my burning bosom till I had emptied the red pepper cruet into the manger of "John the Baptist"—turning his clover hay into the very wildest kind of honey—and set him sneezing till those confounded ears of his stood up so stiff and straight that they raked forward like a jack rabbit's. The indications in the monetary centers at the East are that confidence is returning and that business will soon be going on as usual. The improvement in the Foreign exchange market is very decided and a general feeling of relief is experienced. The Tribune of Sept 29th says the associated banks have resolved on an unlimited issue of their new currency of "loan certificates" and at the same time have concluded to keep secret the amount set afloat. They have also omitted to make the usual weekly statement of their averages. We see nothing to commend in either of these determinations yet it is better to say nothing than to issue a lying bulletin. Of the condition of the United States Treasury we know nothing. The statements of the cash balances therein daily telegraphed from Washington have reference to some indefinite past time anterior to the commencement of the panic. During the last ten days the Sub Treasurer at New York has paid out twenty six millions more currency than he has received. Of these twenty six millions about one half is accounted for by the redemption of Five Twenty bonds, and the rest by the withdrawal of greenbacks by the banks from their special deposit with the Sub Treasurer. The new loan certificates issued by the banks now do the duty of the Clearing house certificates issued by the United States against deposits of legal tenders, so that the entire sum of twenty six millions may be regarded as having gone from the Treasury into the active circulation. The bank statement whenever published will probably show a loss during the last week of September of not less than fifteen million dollars in the reserve of legal tender notes. With paper to the amount of nearly eight hundred millions dollars doing duty as currency and accepted by everybody without hesitation, the subsidence of the panic cannot it would seem long be delayed. Indeed it is not impossible that insolvent debtors may find it easier to borrow four weeks hence than they have for many months. In that case we shall probably have next winter a powerful appeal to Congress from that influential class of the community for some 'elastic' currency, of which the only limit shall be the disposition of projectors of spirited but unremunerative undertakings to borrow. Then will the Wall street bear like the black bear and the brown bear, disappear from the haunts of men. We shall majestically float upwards like Prof Wise's ideal balloon and explore at our leisure the upper currents of the air gayly bidding defiance to theories of gravitation. Meanwhile we are all anxious to get out of the mud philosophers as well as the rest, and it is a comfort to feel that the ground grows harder.

Our Imports.

The value of imported commodities passing through the Custom House at this port during the months of July August and September was $242 273 88. Duties collected amounted to $10 798 03. The commodities entered during the quarter included wheat bags valued at $46... paying a duty of $18 785 30. The value of imported rice was $2 167 30 duty thereon $18,8... This article was wholly imported by Chinese. Besides the wheat bags imported burlaps valued at $11 456 72 to be made into bags were entered. Sugar entered and withdrawn for consumption during the quarter amounted to 2 140 41 pounds valued at $64 838 29 duty thereon $34 601 81.

Exports.

The New York Times of the 29th ult says:

Notwithstanding the week of excitement, confusion and embarrassment through which we have just passed and despite of the extraordinary depression and disturbances of the foreign exchanges the actual exports of produce show a very handsome aggregate. The export business in breadstuffs in the way of actual shipments for European ports during the week just ended was quite large, having embraced nearly 33,000 barrels flour 1 790 000 bushels of wheat over 200 000 bushels of corn and 35 000 bushels of rye.

In addition to these important breadstuffs exports, the shipments of provisions to European ports within the same week included 281 barrels of pork 451 packages of beef 5 600 packages of lard, nearly 5 000 boxes of bacon, 18,500 boxes of cheese and 650 packages of butter. Of tobacco there were shipped equal to nearly 1,500 hogsheads and of cotton over 4 000 bales mainly by steam to Liverpool but including 400 bales by the Europe for Havre.

The Liverpool steamers took their departure yesterday promptly on time and so far were they from deficiency of freight that some of them left produce behind on the dock which had been engaged for them but which according to the statement of their representatives they were unable to accommodate. These facts indicate very substantial progress in the export movement of produce especially considering the unusually adverse influences at work against that important interest during the past week or ten days.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Disease

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at the pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and the broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late ... immediately to DR. GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate disease without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who ... all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of ... charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confusion of ideas, blunted intellect, loss of confidence ... approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, ... frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will ... satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco ...

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are living under any of these fearful maladies ... should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR GIBBON is ... and will give to patients a ... instrument, binding ... to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Post office or through Wells, Fargo & Co a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box 1 957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1 957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN.
